About Louise-Rose.com

Louise-Rose.com is my space on the internet and began in December 2014. It was created to share my life and experiences, but has expanded into a place where I collaborate with brands and bloggers regularly.

I'm a York based blogger and I cover lifestyle, travel, fashion and food. I sometimes write about a variety of other topics.

I'm 30-something years old, me and my husband bought our own house. Married in 2024 and have two beautiful cats.
